

MANOJ LADWA

Founder, India Global Forum

Manoj Ladwa is the Founder and Chairman of India Global Forum. His work is focused on geopolitics, trade and investment, sustainability and innovation for economies around the globe.

Recognising the significance of the UK-India partnership in fostering economic growth and innovation in a rapidly changing world, Manoj has been at the forefront of strengthening ties between the two nations leveraging his expertise and influence. In 2017, Manoj led and edited 'Winning Partnership-UK India Relations Beyond Brexit', a landmark study on the evolving alliance between the two major democracies.

Manoj is most recognised for his expertise on India's evolving geopolitical role and its ascending contribution to global economic progress and prosperity. His work in India, including his role as Communications Director for Narendra Modi's 2014 election campaign, spans politics, business, entrepreneurship and research.

His experience in bringing businesses, governments, and people together has paved the way for dialogue, collaboration and impact.